IN 2010, AN EVENT ENDORSED BY THE EUROPEAN UNION

"I believe in the importance of bringing the citizens of Europe closer together. Getting to know the people who live next door is a very good start. Therefore I am happy to lend my patronage to the Neighbours Day 2010. I fully support its objective to develop a network of partners willing to promote a ‘better living together’. I hope that this year’s Neighbours Day events shall enhance people’s interest in contributing to a society founded on common values, such as solidarity, tolerance, mutual respect and the fight against discrimination. Europe begins next door! »

Herman VAN ROMPUY
President of the European Council

"As social housing providers, our vision is of a Europe where communities are socially, economically and environmentally sustainable and where all are enabled to reach their full potential. European Neighbours’ Day is a practical way to bring communities together and instil solidarity among neighbours and we encourage everyone to take part in an initiative that is improving neighbourhoods across Europe. »

David ORR, President of CECODHAS
(European Liaison Committee for Social Housing)

Neighbours’ Day encourages people to get to know and talk to each other. It creates better conditions for living together and fosters community cohesion and solidarity. By meeting each other once a year at an informal celebratory event, Neighbours’ Day improves the way people live together and helps instil community cohesion.

Although the event is supported by city councils and housing associations, the main aim is to get local residents to take on lead roles and organise a neighbours’ party themselves. Throughout Europe, the day features various activities enriched by the local culture and creates networks for neighbourly and community practices.
